

LEGAL INFORMATION

Jacobson & Schmitt Advisors, LLC (JSA) and its investment advisor representatives may transact business in states only if JSA has filed an appropriate state notice and, in the case of its representatives, has registered them in accordance with state investment adviser representative registration requirements or determined that they are exempt from registration. Follow-up individualized responses to persons by JSA and its representatives that involve providing personalized investment advice for compensation will not be made absent compliance with state investment adviser notice and investment adviser representative registration requirements, or an applicable exemption or exclusion from these requirements.

The Principals of JSA are also Registered Representatives of Buttonwood Partners Inc. and will only transact business in states if they are registered or excluded or exempted from applicable state broker-dealer or broker-dealer agent registration requirements.
